MORE ON NCU's 2015 GRADUATION EXERCISES

Graduation is the premier annual event hosted by Northern Caribbean University (NCU). This year's activities were held August 7 -9, 2015 at the institution's main campus in Mandeville. It is a time of pageantry that captures the essence of the feeling of triumph experienced by those students who stuck it out and accomplished a significant milestone.

The theme for this year was Milestones as Stepping Stones. Ethelred Carter MD, Gastroenterologist, Los Angeles, California, USA & Assistant Professor at Loma Linda University School of Medicine, California was the speaker for the first commencement; and the Hon. Rufus Ewing MBBS, FRCS, DM, MPH, FACS, MP Premier and Minister of Tourism, Culture and Heritage, The Turks and Caicos Islands for the second.

Kindly access the links below for the summary of the speeches and photographic highlights.
